Subject: Actuarial Valuation Report for December 31, 2017 Disclosure and Fiscal 2018 Net Periodic Benefit Cost for Duke Energy Pension Plans and Retiree Welfare Plans

Dear David:

Duke Energy engaged Towers Watson Delaware Inc., a subsidiary of Willis Towers Watson PLC (“Willis Towers Watson”) to value the Company’s pension and other postretirement benefit plans. This report provides information for year-end financial reporting purposes required by FASB Accounting Standards Codification Topic 715-20-50 (ASC 715) for your fiscal year ending December 31, 2017 for the below listed plans.

The exhibits present year-end financial reporting information in accordance with ASC 715-20-50, including the net balance sheet position, cash flow, plan asset information, amortization amounts during the fiscal year, participant information, the provisions on which the valuation is based, and the actuarial assumptions and methods used in the calculations. Additional input is required (as described below) by the Company in relation to the asset disclosures specified in ASC 715-20-50-1(d).

In addition, this report presents the Net Periodic Benefit Cost/(Income), in accordance with ASC 715, for the fiscal year beginning January 1, 2018. Both year-end financial reporting and benefit cost results are based on a valuation of the below plans as of December 31, 2017. In regards to the plans listed below please note the following:

- Effective January 1, 2018, the Duke Energy Retirement Cash Balance Plan (“RCBP”), the Cinergy Corp. Union Employees’ Retirement Income Plan, and the Retirement Plan of Piedmont Natural Gas, Inc. were reorganized into two (2) plans: the RCBP and the Duke Energy Legacy Pension Plan (new plan) through a series of spinoffs and mergers. This reorganization was reflected in the fiscal 2018 Net Periodic Benefit Cost information only.
- Effective January 1, 2018, the Legacy Duke and Legacy Progress medical plans were consolidated for accounting purposes. This consolidation was reflected in the fiscal 2018 Net Periodic Benefit Cost information only.

Financial Reporting Information

As discussed above, the enclosed information was prepared in accordance with FASB ASC 715-20-50 and 715-60-50 and certain information must be provided by Duke Energy that we do not prepare or that requires your further consideration:

- Categorization of assets, actual asset allocation at the end of 2017 and 2016, and the target asset allocation for 2018.
- A description of Duke Energy's investment policy for the assets held by the pension and postretirement benefit plans.
- A description of the basis used to determine the expected long-term rate of return on plan assets.

In consultation with Duke Energy, $128 million and $13 million have been contributed to the Duke Energy Retirement Cash Balance Plan and the Retirement Plan for Bargaining Unit Employees of Florida Progress Corporation, respectively, on January 2, 2018. Additionally, a contribution of $7 million is planned for the Duke Energy Retirement Cash Balance Plan on December 28, 2018 and will be allocated to the Piedmont Natural Gas payroll company. No other contributions are planned for 2018 for the qualified pension plans. With the exception of the merged Legacy Duke and Progress Medical Plan, the expected contributions to the Legacy Duke and Progress other postretirement benefits plans have been set to the expected benefit disbursements for unfunded plans and expected benefit disbursements net of available assets for funded plans. For the merged Legacy Duke and Progress Medical Plan, the expected contributions have been set equal to the expected benefit disbursements for Legacy Progress participants. The expected contributions for the unfunded nonqualified pension plans have been set to the expected benefit disbursements for the given year.

Note that any significant change in the amounts contributed or expected to be contributed in 2018 will require disclosure in the interim financial statements.

Summary of Results

Fiscal 2018 Net Periodic Benefit Cost

The table on the next page provides a summary of the 2018 net periodic benefit cost for the Duke Energy benefit plans compared to fiscal 2017 and compared to the fiscal 2018 budget estimates provided in August 2017 for the non-qualified pension plans and OPEB plans, and in September 2017 for the qualified pension plans.

	2017 Net Periodic Benefit Cost	2018 Net Periodic Benefit Cost (Budget)	2018 Net Periodic Benefit Cost (Actual)
Qualified Pension Plans	$79,102,006	$50,450,270	$26,492,066
Non-Qualified Pension Plans	$20,742,844	$20,728,263	$19,807,430
OPEB Plans	($73,856,773)	$16,402,384	$14,715,999
SUBTOTAL	$25,988,077	$87,580,917	$61,015,495
Curtailment/settlement	($17,659,932)	$0	TBD
TOTAL	$8,328,145	$87,580,917	TBD

Comments on Fiscal 2018 Net Periodic Benefit Cost

As previously reported, the total budgeted benefit cost for fiscal 2018 was projected to increase by $62 million compared to fiscal 2017 (disregarding special curtailment/settlement charges that applied in the fourth quarter of 2017). This increase was the net effect of the following items:

- Expected change for growth of benefit accruals, interest and amortization.
- Change in the discount rate from 4.10% to 3.70%.
- Expected favorable investment performance anticipated for full year 2017.
- Cash contributions to the pension plans of $145 million during 2017 (or early 2018, in the case of contributions associated with the Retirement Cash Balance Plan).
- Anticipated split/combination of the Duke Energy Retirement Cash Balance Plan (“RCBP”), Cinergy Corp. Union Employees’ Retirement Income Plan (“CGEU”), and Retirement Plan of Piedmont Natural Gas (“PNG Pension”) into Retirement Cash Balance Plan and Legacy Pension Plan, effective January 1, 2018.
- Anticipated consolidation of Legacy Duke Energy, Legacy Cinergy, and Legacy Progress Energy Postretirement Medical Programs for accounting purposes as of January 1, 2018.
- Beginning January 1, 2018, anticipated changes to the mortality tables used for minimum lump sum purposes under IRC Section 417(e).

The actual total net periodic benefit cost for 2018 shown above is $27 million lower than budget. The primary drivers behind this change compared to the budgeted costs include:

- An increase in cost of $2 million due to a change in the discount rate from 3.70% (budgeted) to 3.60% (actual).
- A decrease in cost of $12 million due to actual investment performance during 2017 that was more favorable than anticipated.
- A decrease in cost of $5 million due to the change in mortality projection scale assumption (adoption of MP-2017 from Scale BB-2D)
- A decrease in cost of $7 million due to pension plan split optimization workstreams performed during 2017. These include:
  - Working with Duke Energy to identify additional participants who could be moved into the Legacy Pension Plan (e.g. active employees who are no longer accruing benefits under the pension plans because of disability, rehire status, etc.)
  - Recalibrating the purchase accounting adjustment schedule to reflect the extended amortization period of the pension plan split
- A decrease in cost of $2 million due to reflection of the Piedmont pension plan settlement charge during 2017 (accelerated unrecognized loss from AOCI into 2017 cost vs. deferring into future years)

- A decrease in cost of $3 million due to other sources of gain/loss. E.g. terminations/retirements during 2017 less than expected, actual benefit payments during 2017 less than expected, final plan split population “true-ups” based on data provided by Aight, amortization period “true-ups” based on population at end of the year

The pre-purchase accounting amortization adjustment for the legacy Cinergy plans is $11.4 million for fiscal 2018 and is determined based on a special schedule we prepared for this purpose dated December 16, 2015 and the updated exhibit for the qualified plans, which was revised after reflection of pension plan reorganization, dated January 9, 2018.

Actuarial Certification

This valuation has been conducted in accordance with generally accepted actuarial principles and practices. However, please note the information discussed below regarding this valuation.

Reliances

In preparing the results presented in this report, we have relied upon information regarding plan provisions, participants, assets and sponsor accounting policies and methods provided by Duke Energy and other persons or organizations designated by Duke Energy. We have relied on all the data and information provided as being complete and accurate. We have reviewed this information for overall reasonableness and consistency, but have neither audited nor independently verified this information. Based on discussions with the plan sponsor, assumptions or estimates may have been made if data were not available. We are not aware of any errors or omissions in the data that would have a significant effect on the results of our calculations. The results presented in this report are directly dependent upon the accuracy and completeness of the underlying data and information. Any material inaccuracy in the data, assets, plan provisions or other information provided to us may have produced results that are not suitable for the purposes of this report and such inaccuracies, as corrected by Duke Energy, may produce materially different results that could require that a revised report be issued.

Measurement of Benefit Obligations, Plan Assets and Balance Sheet Adjustments

With the exception of the Piedmont postretirement benefits plan, the benefit obligations were measured as of Duke Energy’s December 31, 2017 fiscal year end and were projected forward from January 1, 2017 to the end of the year, adjusting for benefit payments, expected growth in the benefit obligations, changes in assumptions and plan provisions, and any known demographic experience that occurred during the year.

For the Piedmont postretirement benefits plan, the benefit obligations were also measured as of December 31, 2017 and were projected forward from October 31, 2016 to the measurement date, adjusting for benefit payments, expected growth in the benefit obligations, changes in assumptions and plan provisions, and any known demographic experience that occurred during the year.

Per discussions with Duke Energy, the effects of changes in plan provisions (see section below entitled “Significant Events and Plan Changes During the Year” for additional details), were measured as of December 31, 2017 and determined on a payroll company basis.

Asset values, net investment returns, and benefits paid during 2017 used in our financial exhibits for funded plans were based on the Wells Fargo Trust reports and the Northern Trust reports provided to us by Duke Energy dated January 16, 2018. Duke Energy provided actual 2017 benefit payment information for the RCBP and CGEU pension plans, by payroll company, on January 9, 2018. Information about VEBA trust assets was furnished to us by Duke Energy on January 16, 2018. Benefit payments made from corporate assets were furnished to us by Duke Energy on January 11, 2018.

Please note that for the Legacy Duke and Cinergy Retiree Medical and Legacy Cinergy Retiree Life Plans, a portion of the actual employer claims and retiree contributions provided for Duke Energy Commercial Enterprises (“DECE”) were reported under Ohio. As a result, we reallocated the actual employer claims and retiree contributions provided by Duke Energy for Ohio and Duke Energy Commercial Enterprises in proportion to the expected claims to be paid for these two payroll companies.

Participant Data

Participant data was collected as of January 1, 2017 and provided by Duke Energy's third-party plan administrator. This data was used to measure plan obligations as of January 1, 2017. Participant data for the Piedmont postretirement benefits plan was provided as of October 31, 2016 by the prior actuary and was used to measure plan obligations as of October 31, 2016.

Participant Transfers

Updated payroll company codes were provided by Duke Energy for active employees in November 2017 and reflected in the payroll-level obligations of the plans. Additionally, Duke Energy identified key groups of transferred employees for which assets (if applicable) and pro-rata unrecognized amounts should be explicitly transferred in the reporting for the pension and OPEB plans. The effect of this transaction is captured in our exhibits as “Payroll Company Transfers.”

Allocation Methodology

We employed an allocation approach similarly used in prior years. Details regarding this approach are provided in Appendix D of this report.

As it relates to the pension plan reorganization effective January 1, 2018, key allocation items to note include:

- Projected benefit obligation allocated to the Legacy Pension Plan is based on an individual participant-level roll-forward of obligations as of January 1, 2017, adjusted for actual benefit payment experience during the year as provided by Duke Energy on an individual basis. We also relied on plan assignment information provided by Alight on December 8, 2017. Since census data as of December 31, 2017 was not collected, this approach is considered an estimate and additional true-up may be needed in the coming months as more current census information is collected.
- Fair value of assets allocated to the Legacy Pension Plan (total plan level) is based on the amounts calculated in our letter to Duke Energy dated December 19, 2017. Actual amount of - assets allocated to the Legacy Pension Plan will be trued-up with final census information and market conditions during the coming months. Therefore the amount allocated to the Legacy Pension Plan for purposes of 2018 cost determination is still considered preliminary/estimated.

- Market related value of assets, and resulting deferral bases, was allocated between the RCBP and Legacy Pension Plan as of January 1, 2018 based on the fair value of assets of each plan.
  - Unrecognized (gain)/loss was allocated between the RCBP and the Legacy Pension Plan as of January 1, 2018 based on the projected benefit obligation of each plan.
  - Unrecognized prior service cost/(credit) has been allocated entirely to the RCBP since those bases represent benefit changes associated with active participants
  - Fair value of assets in the RCBP and Legacy Pension plans have been allocated between the payroll companies using the ERISA Section 4044 Priority Category 3 and Priority Category 4 liabilities, by payroll company, which was consistent with how the plan-level assets were allocated in December 2017. We retained the aggregate fair value of assets associated with each payroll location before the pension plan split.
  - Unrecognized (gain)/loss in the RCBP and Legacy Pension plans have been allocated between the payroll companies based on each payroll company's proportion of active and inactive projected benefit obligation. We retained the aggregate unrecognized (gain)/loss associated with each payroll location before the pension plan split.

In all instances above, the allocation procedures were applied to each plan (RCBP, CGEU, and Piedmont pension plan) on an individual basis, and then items were merged together based on the mechanics outlined by the pension plan reorganization.

Assumptions and Methods under U.S. GAAP

As required by U.S. GAAP, the actuarial assumptions and methods employed in the development of the pension and other postretirement benefit cost and other financial reporting results have been selected by Duke Energy. Willis Towers Watson has concurred with these assumptions and methods, with the exception of the expected return on asset assumption which was separately prepared by Duke Energy using additional sources of data outside of the scope of our review. ASC 715-30-35 requires that each significant assumption "individually represent the best estimate of a particular future event".

The changes in key assumptions since the prior fiscal year are as follows:

- The discount rate decreased from 4.10% at December 31, 2016 to 3.60% at December 31, 2017.
- The interest rate and mortality basis for lump sum conversions was updated to reflect current market conditions and recent IRS regulations, which updated the mortality table used in these conversions.
- The mortality improvement assumption was changed from the BB-2D male and female improvement scales to the MP-2017 projection scale to align with Duke Energy's expectation of future mortality improvements.
- The cash balance interest crediting rate for the prior Duke Energy formula balances subject to the 30-year Treasury yield was changed from 4.25% to 4.00%.
- The health care trend was reset at 7.00% for 2018 grading down 50 basis points until 5.50% in 2021 then grading down 25 basis points to the ultimate rate of 4.75% in 2024 as a result of increased prescription drug costs combined with more recent increases in medical costs.
- Per capita claims cost assumptions were updated to reflect updated enrollment and claim experience using paid claims data during March 2015 through February 2017 as provided by Truven Health Analytics for each Legacy group (Duke, Cinergy and Progress). Based on this analysis, on a combined group basis, per capita claims costs for pre-65 plan options increased by 5.9%, slightly less than expected.

- Actual 2018 UHC Medicare exchange premiums for post-65 plan options experienced higher than expected increases in premiums for Medicare Supplement plans in NC and lower than expected increases in premiums for SC, IN, and FL. These combined with higher than expected increases in prescription drug plan premiums resulted in total premiums that were slightly higher than expected with trend.

The results shown in this report have been developed based on actuarial assumptions that, to the extent evaluated by Willis Towers Watson, we consider to be reasonable. Other actuarial assumptions could also be considered to be reasonable. Thus, reasonable results differing from those presented in this report could have been developed by selecting different reasonable assumptions.

Please refer to Appendix A for a complete description of the assumptions and methods used in the determination of plan obligations and costs. In addition, we have included an Appendix E to this report which outlines the rationale behind these assumptions in accordance with our understanding of Actuarial Standards of Practice Nos. 4, 6, 27 and 35. These assumptions are based in part on Willis Towers Watson's recommendation and/or analysis. All assumptions were selected based on information known at the measurement date and on the premises that the plan will continue and that no events will occur in 2018 that would cause a remeasurement that may cause Duke Energy to select different assumptions.

Significant Events and Plan Changes During the Year

Details of the provisions for each pension and postretirement welfare plan can be found in the appendices to the report. The following represent significant events and/or plan changes during the year that we reflected in our measurement of the year-end obligations:

- Pension Plans:
  - Effective January 1, 2018, final average pay benefits for Retirement Plan of Piedmont Natural Gas Company, Inc. participants will be frozen and these participants will earn future benefits under the Duke Energy cash balance formula.
  - Lump sum payments made in 2017 triggered settlement accounting for the Retirement Plan of Piedmont Natural Gas Company, Inc. The settlement charge of approximately $12 million was recognized in fiscal 2017 (Q4).
- Retiree Welfare Plans:
  - Effective January 1, 2018, eligibility for retiree medical benefits for all employees in the Duke and Progress medical plans will change from 55 with 10 years of service, to age 55 with 10 years of service with service counted beginning at age 45. This change triggered curtailment accounting in the plan, and the curtailment credit of $30,021,497 was recognized in fiscal 2017 (Q4).
  - Effective January 1, 2018 (January 1, 2020 for employees hired prior to January 1, 2008), legacy Piedmont employees who are currently eligible for retiree medical coverage will move to the Duke enterprise platform.
  - Effective January 1, 2018, legacy Piedmont employees who have not yet retired will no longer be eligible for retiree life insurance.
- All Plans:
  - Fewer than expected terminations observed during 2017 in the legacy Duke Energy, Cinergy, and Progress Energy populations (excluding Florida Bargained group) were reflected in the rollforward of the pension and retiree welfare qualified plans' obligations from January 1, 2017 to the December 31, 2017 measurement date and determination of 2018 Service Cost for the plans.

Notwithstanding the above, we are not aware of any other significant events that would warrant special accounting (i.e. curtailment accounting or special termination accounting) or plan changes during 2017.

Limitations and Nature of Actuarial Calculations

This valuation has been conducted for the purposes described above and may not be suitable for any other purpose. In particular, please note the following:

- This report is not intended to constitute a certification of the Adjusted Funding Target Attainment Percentage (AFTAP) under IRC §436 for any plan year
- This report does not determine funding requirements under IRC §430.
- This report does not provide information for plan reporting under ASC 960.
- This report does not determine liabilities on a plan termination basis, for which a separate extensive analysis would be required. No funded status measure included in this report is intended to assess, and none may be appropriate for assessing, the sufficiency of plan assets to cover the estimated cost of settling benefit obligations, as all such measures differ in some way from plan termination obligations. In addition, funded status measures shown in this report do not reflect the current costs of settling obligations by offering immediate lump sum payments to participants and/or purchasing annuity contracts for the remaining participants (e.g., insurer profit, insurer pricing of contingent benefits and/or provision for anti-selection in the choice of a lump sum vs. an annuity).
- The comparisons of accounting obligations to assets presented in this report cannot be relied upon to determine the need for nor the amount of required future plan contributions, nor the tax deductibility of such contributions. Nevertheless, such comparisons may be useful to assess the need for future contributions because they reflect current interest rates at the measurement date in determining benefit obligations. However, asset gains and losses, demographic experience different from assumed, changes in interest rates, future benefit accruals, if any, and other factors will all affect the need for and amount of future contributions. In addition, if a plan is not required by law to be funded, benefit payments may also be paid directly as they come due.

The results shown in this report are estimates based on data that may be imperfect and on assumptions about future events that cannot be predicted with any certainty. Reasonable efforts were made in preparing this valuation to confirm that items that are significant in the context of the actuarial liabilities or costs are treated appropriately, and are not excluded or included inappropriately. Any rounding (or lack thereof) used for displaying numbers in this report is not intended to imply a degree of precision, which is not a characteristic of actuarial calculations.

If overall future plan experience produces higher benefit payments or lower investment returns than assumed, the relative level of plan costs reported in this valuation will likely increase in future valuations (and vice versa). Future actuarial measurements may differ significantly from the current measurements presented in this report due to many factors, including: plan experience differing from that anticipated by the economic or demographic assumptions, changes in economic or demographic assumptions, increases or decreases expected as part of the natural operation of the methodology used for the measurements (such as the end of an amortization period), and changes in plan provisions or applicable law. Due to the limited scope of our assignment, we did not perform an analysis of the potential range of such future measurements. Retiree group benefits models necessarily rely on the use of approximations and estimates, and are sensitive to changes in these approximations and estimates. Small variations in these approximations and estimates may lead to significant changes in actuarial measurements.

Limitations on Use

Methods

Census Date

January 1, 2017

Measurement Date

December 31, 2017

Data Adjustments

For the December 31, 2017 disclosure, the benefit obligations as of January 1, 2017 were projected to December 31, 2017 using a roll-forward methodology. This methodology calculates the expected obligations at December 31, 2017 as if all actuarial assumptions had been realized, and then adjusts these expected obligations for the plan amendments, assumption changes, and known demographic experience, if any, that occurred during the year. For the December 31, 2017 disclosure, rolled-forward obligations were adjusted for less than expected terminations and retirements that were observed during 2017.

Cost Method

Traditional unit credit for fixed interest crediting rate cash balance benefits and projected unit credit for all other benefits.

Market-Related Value of Assets

Fair value of assets for Florida Power, Florida Progress and Electric Fuels. For all other companies, the difference between the actual return on fair value of assets and the assumed return (calculated at the long-term rate of return on assets) is amortized over five years (on straight-line basis).

Amortization of unamortized amounts:

- Past Service Cost (credit) Increase or decrease in PBO resulting from a plan amendment is amortized on a straight-line basis over the average expected remaining service of active participants expected to benefit under the plan.
- Net Loss (gain) for Duke Energy Retirement Cash Balance Plan (restructured 1/1/2018) Net loss (gain) in excess of 10% of the greater of PBO or the market-related value of asset is amortized on a straight-line basis over the average expected remaining service of active participants expected to benefit under the plan.
- Net Loss (gain) for the Duke Energy Legacy Pension Plan (restructured 1/1/2018) Net loss (gain) in excess of 10% of the greater of PBO or the market-related value of asset is amortized on a straight-line basis over the average of, the shorter of, the remaining lifetime of participants expected to benefit under the plan and the average remaining period over which the benefits are expected to be paid to participants.

Benefits not valued

All benefits described in the Plan Provisions section of this report were valued except prior plan benefits and grandfathered benefits for active employees. Based on discussions with Duke Energy Corporation, such benefits are considered to have a de minimis likelihood of being paid and thus are not required to be valued, and will not be valued. Willis Towers Watson has reviewed the plan provisions with Duke Energy Corporation and, based on that review, is not aware of any significant benefits required to be valued that were not.

Change in assumptions and methods since prior valuation

The discount rate decreased from 4.10% to 3.60%.

The interest and mortality basis for lump sum payments was updated to reflect market conditions at the measurement date and the IRS prescribed mortality table applicable for 2018 plan year payments.

The assumed cash balance interest crediting rate for account balances subject to the 30-year Treasury rate was decreased from 4.25% to 4.00%.

The assumptions for estimated administrative expenses were updated to reflect the 2018 plan restructuring.

The mortality projection scale was changed from BB-2D to MP-2017.

    ▶ Net loss (gain)	See details under Duke Energy Retirement Cash Balance (Exhibit A-1)
Benefits not valued	All benefits described in the Plan Provisions section of this report were valued except prior plan benefits and grandfathered benefits for active employees. Based on discussions with Duke Energy Corporation, such benefits are considered to have a de minimis likelihood of being paid and thus are not valued. Willis Towers Watson has reviewed the plan provisions with Duke Energy Corporation and, based on that review, is not aware of any significant benefits required to be valued that were not.
Change in assumptions and methods since prior valuation	The discount rate decreased from 4.10% to 3.60%. The interest and mortality basis for lump sum payments was updated to reflect market conditions at the measurement date and the IRS prescribed mortality table applicable for 2018 plan year payments. The assumed cash balance interest crediting rate for account balances subject to the 30-year Treasury rate was decreased from 4.25% to 4.00%.

The assumption for estimated expenses was updated to reflect the 2018 plan restructuring.

The mortality projection scale was changed from BB-2D to MP-2017.

Methods

Census Date	January 1, 2017
Measurement Date	December 31, 2017
Data Adjustments	For the December 31, 2017 disclosure, the benefit obligations as of January 1, 2017 were projected to December 31, 2017 using a roll-forward methodology. This methodology calculates the expected obligations at December 31, 2017 as if all actuarial assumptions had been realized, and then adjusts these expected obligations for the plan amendments, assumption changes, and known demographic experience, if any, that occurred during the year.
Cost Method	Traditional unit credit for Cash Balance benefits and projected unit credit for final average pay-related benefits.
Market-related value of assets	Fair value of assets
Amortization of unamortized amounts:
▶ Past service cost (credit)	Increase or decrease in PBO resulting from a plan amendment is amortized on a straight-line basis over the average expected remaining service of active participants expected to benefit under the plan.
▶ Net loss (gain)	Net loss (gain) in excess of 10% of the greater of PBO or the market-related value of assets is amortized on a straight-line basis over the average expected remaining service of active participants expected to benefit under the plan.
Benefits not valued	All benefits described in the Plan Provisions section of this report were valued. Willis Towers Watson has reviewed the plan provisions with Duke Energy Corporation and, based on that review, is not aware of any significant benefits required to be valued that were not.
Change in assumptions and methods since prior valuation	The discount rate decreased from 4.10% to 3.60%. The assumption for estimated administrative expenses increased from $562,055 to $606,031 for 2018. The mortality projection scale was changed from BB-2D to MP-2017.

Data Adjustments	For the December 31, 2017 disclosure, the benefit obligations as of January 1, 2017 were projected to December 31, 2017 using a roll-forward methodology. This methodology calculates the expected obligations at December 31, 2017 as if all actuarial assumptions had been realized, and then adjusts these expected obligations for the plan amendments, assumption changes, and known demographic experience, if any, that occurred during the year.
Market-related value of assets	The difference between the actual return on fair value of assets and the assumed return (calculated at the long-term rate of return on assets) is amortized over five years (on straight-line basis).
Amortization of unamortized amounts:
▪ Past service cost (credit)	Increase or decrease in PBO resulting from a plan amendment is amortized on a straight-line basis over the average expected remaining service of active participants expected to benefit under the plan.
▪ Net loss (gain)	See details under Duke Energy Retirement Cash Balance (Exhibit A-1)
Benefits not valued	All benefits described in the Plan Provisions section of this report were valued. The plan provisions provide for a lump sum conversion with the greater of IRC §417(e) or UP-84 mortality at 6%. Since the IRC §417(e) conversion basis is expected to provide a larger lump sum both now and in the near-future, our valuation assumes the UP-84 mortality basis will never apply. Willis Towers Watson has reviewed the plan provisions with Duke Energy Corporation and, based on that review, is not aware of any significant benefits required to be valued that were not.

Methods

Census Date	January 1, 2017
Measurement Date	December 31, 2017
Data Adjustments	For the December 31, 2017 disclosure, the benefit obligations as of January 1, 2017 were projected to December 31, 2017 using a roll-forward methodology. This methodology calculates the expected obligations at December 31, 2017 as if all actuarial assumptions had been realized, and then adjusts these expected obligations for the plan amendments, assumption changes, and known demographic experience, if any, that occurred during the year.
Cost Method	Traditional unit credit for fixed interest crediting rate cash balance benefits and projected unit credit for all other benefits.
Amortization of unamortized amounts:
Past service cost (credit)	Increase or decrease in PBO resulting from a plan amendment is amortized on a straight-line basis over the average expected remaining service of active participants expected to benefit under the plan.
Net loss (gain)	Net loss (gain) in excess of 10% of PBO is amortized on a straight-line basis over the average expected remaining service of active participants expected to benefit under the plan.
Significant Liabilities Other Than for Benefits	We are not aware of any significant liabilities other than for benefits.
Change in assumptions and methods since prior valuation	The discount rate decreased from 4.10% to 3.60%.  The interest and mortality basis for lump sum payments was updated to reflect market conditions at the measurement date and the IRS prescribed mortality table applicable for 2018 plan year payments.

The assumed cash balance interest crediting rate for account balances subject to the 30-year Treasury rate was decreased from 4.25% to 4.00%.

The mortality projection scale was changed from BB-2D to MP-2017.

Cinergy Medical amounts are the 2018 Plan F UHC rates for Indiana. Rx rates represent the 2018 UHC rates for the Rx Preferred Plan (blended 65%/35% for North Carolina and South Carolina for Duke Medical and 100% Indiana for Cinergy Medical).

Additional Assumptions

Administrative expenses	Administrative costs are included in the per capita claims cost for medical (current administrative fees reflected are, per enrollee per month, $47.58 for pre-65 medical and $1.75 for Caremark).
Timing of benefit payments	Benefit payments are assumed to be made uniformly throughout the year and on average at mid-year.
Expected Net Employer Contributions	All benefits are assumed to be paid from trust assets, with the exception of life insurance benefits for Cinergy retirees.

Methods

Census date	January 1, 2017
Measurement date	December 31, 2017
Data adjustments	For the December 31, 2017 disclosure, the benefit obligations as of January 1, 2017 were projected to December 31, 2017 using a roll-forward methodology. This methodology calculates the expected obligations at December 31, 2017 as if all actuarial assumptions had been realized, and then adjusts these expected obligations for the plan amendments, assumption changes, and known demographic experience, if any, that occurred during the year.
Service cost and accumulated post-retirement benefit obligation	Costs are determined using the Projected Unit Credit Cost Method with benefits attributed ratably to service from age 45. The annual service cost is equal to the present value of the portion of the projected benefit attributable to service during the upcoming year, and the Accumulated Postretirement Benefit Obligation (APBO) is equal to the present value of the portion of the projected benefit attributable to service before the valuation date. Service from hire date through the expected full eligibility date is counted in allocating costs.

Market-related value of assets	The difference between the actual return on market assets and the assumed return (calculated at the long-term rate of return on assets) is amortized over five years (on straight-line basis).
Amortization of unamortized amounts:
• Transition obligation (asset)	Transition obligation (asset) amortized on a straight line basis.
• Past service cost (credit)	Increase or decrease in APBO resulting from a plan amendment is amortized on a straight-line basis over the average expected remaining service until full eligibility date of active participants expected to benefit under the plan. Reduction in APBO first reduced any unrecognized prior service cost, then any unrecognized transition obligation; any remaining amount is amortized on a straight-line basis as described above.
• Net loss (gain)	Net loss (gain) in excess of 10% of the greater of APBO or the market-related value of asset is amortized on a straight-line basis over the average expected remaining service of active participants expected to benefit under the plan for the Medical Plan, and over the remaining life expectancy of inactive participants for the Life Plan.
Benefits Not Valued	All benefits described in the Plan Provisions section of this report were valued. Willis Towers Watson has reviewed the plan provisions with Duke Energy and, based on that review, is not aware of any significant benefits required to be valued that were not.
Change in Assumptions and Methods Since Prior Valuation	The discount rate decreased from 4.10% to 3.60%. Per capita claims costs assumptions were updated to reflect updated enrollment experience and new plan options. UHC subsidy amounts were updated based on the 2018 premium rates. The mortality projection scale was changed from BB-2D to MP-2017.

Additional Assumptions

Administrative expenses	Administrative costs are included in the per capita claims cost (current administrative fees reflected are, per enrollee per month, $47.58 for pre-65 medical and $1.75 for Caremark)
Timing of benefit payments	Benefit payments are assumed to be made uniformly throughout the year and on average at mid-year.

Methods

Census date	January 1, 2017
Measurement date	December 31, 2017
Service cost and accumulated post-retirement benefit obligation	Costs are determined using the Projected Unit Credit Cost Method with benefits attributed ratably to service from age 45. The annual service cost is equal to the present value of the portion of the projected benefit attributable to service during the upcoming year, and the Accumulated Postretirement Benefit Obligation (APBO) is equal to the present value of the portion of the projected benefit attributable to service before the valuation date. Service from hire date through the expected full eligibility date is counted in allocating costs.

Market-related value of assets      The difference between the actual return on market assets and the assumed return (calculated at the long-term rate of return on assets) is amortized over five years (on straight-line basis).

Amortization of unamortized amounts:

- ▶ Transition obligation (asset)      Transition obligation (asset) amortized on a straight line basis.
- ▶ Past service cost (credit)      Increase or decrease in APBO resulting from a plan amendment is amortized on a straight-line basis over the average expected remaining service until full eligibility date of active participants expected to benefit under the plan. Reduction in APBO first reduced any unrecognized prior service cost, then any unrecognized transition obligation; any remaining amount is amortized on a straight-line basis as described above.
- ▶ Net loss (gain)      Net loss (gain) in excess of 10% of the greater of APBO or the market-related value of asset is amortized on a straight-line basis over the average expected remaining service of active participants expected to benefit under the plan for the Medical Plan, and over the remaining life expectancy of inactive participants for the Life Plans.

Benefits Not Valued      All benefits described in the Plan Provisions section of this report were valued. Willis Towers Watson has reviewed the plan provisions with Duke Energy and, based on that review, is not aware of any significant benefits required to be valued that were not.

Change in Assumptions and Methods Since Prior Valuation      The discount rate decreased from 4.10% to 3.60%.
Per capita claims costs assumptions were updated to reflect updated enrollment experience and new plan options.
UHC subsidy amounts were updated based on the 2018 premium rates.
The mortality projection scale was changed from BB-2D to MP-2017.

Benefits Paid Upon the Following Events

Normal Retirement

The retirement benefit is based on the opening account balance calculated for Legacy Duke Power employees as of January 1, 1997 and for PanEnergy/Nantahala, as of January 1, 1999. Thereafter, the account is increased monthly through the addition of contribution credits and an interest adjustment.

The contribution credit percentage is determined by points credited to the participant monthly, as follows:

Contribution Credit Percentage by Points at Beginning of Year

Points	Contribution Credit Percentage
<35	4%, plus 4% of pay over Social Security Wage Base
35-49	5%, plus 4% of pay over Social Security Wage Base
50-64	6%, plus 4% of pay over Social Security Wage Base
>64	7%, plus 4% of pay over Social Security Wage Base

A participant's points as of any January 1 (or date of participation) equal the sum of the attained age and creditable service on such date, with the sum truncated to drop less than full points.

The monthly interest adjustment is a percentage increase in the account balance. For balances accrued through December 31, 2012 for non-union employees, through December 31, 2013 for USW Local 7202 (Nantahala) employees, and through March 31, 2015 for IBEW Local 962 and IBEW Local 962-T employees, the rate of monthly increase is the average yield on 30-year Treasury bonds for the end of the third full business week of the month prior to the beginning of the calendar quarter in which the particular month occurs, subject to a minimum of 4% and a maximum of 9%. For non-union pay credits accrued on or after January 1, 2013, USW Local 7202 (Nantahala) pay credits accrued on or after January 1, 2014, and IBEW Local 962 and IBEW Local 962-T pay credits accrued on or after April 1, 2015, the rate of monthly interest credit is fixed based on an annual percentage rate of 4%.

Cash Balance Benefits Vested cash balance account

Cash Balance Benefits Benefit is based on the greater of the account balance accrued to date and prior plan benefit with at least 3 years of vesting service.

Disablement

Upon disability, a participant will continue to earn pay credits based on pre-disability income. These credits will continue until the earlier of age 65, early retirement, or ineligibility.

For non-union and USW Local 7202 (Nantahala) participants as of January 1, 2014, disability occurring on or after July 1, 2014, pay credits will cease upon disability.

Benefits Paid Upon the Following Events

Normal Retirement

For CP&L employees, the retirement benefit is the greater of (A) the cash balance based on the opening account balance calculated for Progress Energy as of January 1, 1999, and (B) the frozen final average pay formula pension.

For Florida Progress and NCNG employees, the retirement benefit is equal to the sum of (A) the cash balance account and (B) a frozen final average pay formula pension prior to the cash balance conversion (January 1, 2000 for NCNG and January 1, 2002 for Florida Progress).

Effective January 1, 2014, the cash balance (“A”) account consists of two subaccounts:

1. Portion of cash balance attributable to pay credits earned prior to December 31, 2013, which will increase with interest on an annual basis.
2. Second subaccount established January 1, 2014 for future pay and interest credits, which will be applied on a monthly basis according to the Duke Energy Cash Balance formula.

Beginning January 1, 2014, the pay credit percentage is determined by points and is credited to the participant monthly, as follows:

Pay Credit Percentage by Points at the Beginning of the Year

Points	Pay Credit Percentage
<35	4%, plus 4% of pay over Social Security Wage Base
35-49	5%, plus 4% of pay over Social Security Wage Base
50-64	6%, plus 4% of pay over Social Security Wage Base
>64	7%, plus 4% of pay over Social Security Wage Base

A participant’s points as of any January 1 (or date of participation) equal the sum of the attained age and benefit service on such date, with the sum truncated to drop less than full points.

An opening cash balance based on the pre-1999 plan was provided based on the existing accrued benefit and age at conversion for CP&L employees.

The account balance is increased at a fixed rate of 4% per year. For the balance attributable to pay credits occurring before December 31, 2013, the adjustment is done on an annual basis. For the balance attributable to pay credits occurring on or after January 1, 2014, pay credits and interest credits are credited monthly.

Early Retirement

Cash Balance: Cash balance account converted to the actuarially equivalent life annuity (for former CP&L participants, this is subject to a prior plan minimum reduced for early retirement)

CP&L FAP:

- For participants with less than 15 years of service (used only in prior plan minimum), annuity benefit reduced using actuarial equivalence reduction factors ranging from .047 to .90.
- For participants between 15 and 20 years of service, annuity benefit reduced by 2.5% per year which precedes the normal retirement date
- For participants with at least 20 years of service, annuity benefit is reduced from age 62 using factors ranging from .75 to .90.

NCNG FAP: 6-2/3 percent reduction from age 65 for first five years and 3-1/3 percent reduction for next five years from age 60 to 55

- For participants with at least 35 years of service, no reduction in annuity benefit

Postponed Retirement

For the portion of benefits accrued through December 31, 2013, the benefit is based on greater of actuarially increased normal retirement benefit or late retirement benefit based on service and pay through late retirement date. For the portion of benefits accrued on or after January 1, 2014, the benefit is subject to the suspension of benefits rules and not subject to actuarial increases.

Vested Retirement

Changes from one year to the next of less than 1% are ignored and the adjusted benefit will not decrease below the original benefit nor increase above the original benefit increased by compound interest of 3% per year. These cost-of-living increases do not apply to terminated/vested employees or to benefits accrued by non-union employees after December 31, 1992, NC/SC union employees after June 30, 1998, and Nashville union employees after July 31, 1999.

Substantive Plan Provisions

Retiree Medical Benefits for Retirees and Active Employees Eligible to Retire at November 1, 1993

Piedmont offers retiree medical coverage to eligible employees (and their spouses if part of the Nashville or NCNG groups). Employees are first eligible to retire with medical benefits at age 55 with 10 or more years of vesting service. Surviving spouses of retirees in the Nashville or NCNG groups may continue their subsidized coverage provided they were covered at the time of the retiree's death and any applicable premiums are continued.

Retiree Medical Benefits for Active Employees Not Eligible to Retire at November 1, 1993

Effective November 1, 1993, the eligibility requirements for postretirement medical benefits were changed for those employees not yet eligible to retire. Employees are first eligible to retire with medical benefits after providing 10 years of service following age 45. Surviving spouses of Nashville and NCNG retirees may continue their coverage provided they were covered at the time of the retiree's death and any applicable premiums are continued. Disabled employees are eligible to continue their medical coverage.

Retiree Medical Benefits for Active Employees hired or rehired after December 31, 2007

New Piedmont employees hired or rehired after December 31, 2007 must complete 10 years of service after age 50 (age 45 for retirements after January 1, 2018) before becoming eligible for pre-65 retiree health care and life insurance coverage through Piedmont. These employees will not be eligible for Company-sponsored health care coverage once they reach age 65.

Life Insurance Benefits

Retiree Life Benefits Prior to November 1, 1993, employees age 55 or older who retired with ten years or more of service were eligible to receive postretirement life insurance benefits. Effective November 1, 1993, for those employees not meeting the eligibility requirements previously stated, the eligibility provisions were changed to require ten years of service following the age of 45.

Piedmont provided active employees in North or South Carolina a life insurance benefit equal to one times annual earnings rounded to the next higher $1,000 and employees may purchase an additional one times salary of supplemental life. Both life insurance amounts are reduced by 20% each year beginning on the first anniversary of retirement until the fifth anniversary when coverage equals 10% of the amount (basic and supplemental) in effect at retirement. Piedmont provided active North or South Carolina employees represented by a collective bargaining unit one times annual earnings and the option to purchase an additional one times salary supplemental life. For bargaining unit retirees on June 29, 1998 and later, the reduction schedule changed and both life and supplemental life are reduced to 75% beginning on the first anniversary of retirement and by 25% each of the following two years.

Active Tennessee employees are provided with a life insurance benefit equal to two times annual salary. Employees who retire have their life insurance benefit reduced to 25% of the amount they had as an active employee. Active employees represented by a collective bargaining unit follow the same reduction schedule but the 25% can not exceed a maximum of $15,000 of life insurance at retirement. Between November 1, 2003 and June 30, 2005, active Tennessee employees were provided with one times salary reduced by 50% at retirement. Active employees represented by a collective bargaining unit received a one time reduction to $15,000.

Life insurance benefits for disabled employees continue with no reduction in coverage until age 65. At age 65, coverage is reduced in the same manner as other retirees in their geographic location.

Future Retiree Life Benefits All employees retiring on or after July 1, 2005 but on or before January 1, 2018 will receive a flat amount of $15,000 of company-paid basic retiree life insurance on their retirement date. This amount will not reduce over time and will stay in place for the life of the retiree. The only exception to this is a group of NCNG employees who were already eligible to retire under Progress' retirement provisions at the time of the acquisition on October 1, 2003. These employees were grandfathered under the Progress retiree life insurance plan which provided a flat amount of $20,000 in basic life insurance at retirement. These employees received $20,000 of basic life when they retired from Piedmont.

Effective January 1, 2018, retiree life insurance benefits have been eliminated for all employees retiring after January 1, 2018.

Retiree Life Contributions Retirees do not contribute toward the cost of their basic life insurance. Retirees, prior to 2005, in North and South Carolina are required to pay for elected supplemental life insurance. The retiree contribution for supplemental life insurance is frozen at the benefit level in the first year of retirement.

Changes in Benefits Valued

Effective January 1, 2018, all employees who are eligible and retire after January 1, 2018 (January 1, 2020 for employees hired or rehired prior to January 1, 2008) were placed in the D7/D8 subsidy class and will receive a pre-65 monthly subsidy HRA credit of $350 for the retiree ($250 if under the age of 50 as of January 1, 2018) and $175 ($125) for the spouse. This plan change was incorporated as of year-end 2017.

Effective January 1, 2018, retiree life insurance benefits have been eliminated for all employees retiring after January 1, 2018

The following describes the method of allocation.

Projected Benefit Obligation	Calculated by summing the projected benefit obligation of each plan participant assigned to the payroll company.
Plan Assets at Fair Value	Cumulative amount of contributions, benefit payments, administrative expenses, and returns that have been assigned to the payroll company. Return is allocated so that each payroll company has the same return on the beginning of year assets adjusted for cash flow.
Market Related Value of Assets	Allocated to each payroll company in proportion to the payroll company portion of the plan assets at fair value. For RCBP Plan, this allocation is applied only to the payroll companies that do not use fair value as the market related value.
Benefit Payments	Benefit payments are explicitly provided by payroll company by Duke Energy.
Employer Contributions	Plan sponsor contributions are allocated based on the sum of service cost, administrative expense load, and a 7-year amortization of unfunded PBO. The most recently reported information is used for this purpose.
Prior Service Cost	Calculated for each payroll company when an amendment is passed that changes the projected benefit obligation. The amount shown for each payroll company is the remaining amount to be recognized in the future as a component of expense.
Amount Recognized in Retained Earnings	For each payroll company, the accumulation of annual expense allocated to the payroll company in the past is offset by the accumulation of plan contributions allocated to the payroll company. Adjustments are also made for transfers of unrecognized amounts (see below).
Service Cost	Calculated by summing the service cost of each plan participant assigned to the payroll company.
Administrative Expense	Allocated to each payroll company in proportion to the payroll company's portion of the plan assets at fair value.
Interest Cost	Based on the projected benefit obligation for the payroll company and the expected benefit payments of participants assigned to the payroll company.
Expected Return on Assets	Based on the market related value of assets, expected benefit payments, and expected contributions allocated to the payroll company.
Amortization of Prior Service Cost	Amortization amount is calculated for each payroll company at the time a prior service cost base is established.

Amortization of Gains and Losses

The amortization of actuarial gains and losses is determined for the plan in aggregate. If an amount is being amortized, it is allocated to each payroll company on the basis of the payroll company's portion of the unrecognized gains and losses.

Transfers Between Payroll Companies

If a participant transfers between payroll companies, the projected benefit obligation as of the beginning of the year is determined. Assets equal to the projected benefit obligation are then transferred from the prior payroll company<sup>1</sup>. The result of this method is that a payroll company does not incur an actuarial gain or loss due to transfers.

Unrecognized items are transferred pro rata according to the portion of the prior payroll company's projected benefit obligation that is transferred.

Supporting Documentation for Key Assumptions

This report documents the actuarial assumptions used in the valuations of the Duke Energy retirement programs. Duke Energy is responsible for the selection of actuarial assumptions for U.S. GAAP reporting. This report provides the methodology and rationale used by Willis Towers Watson to support our concurrence with these assumptions, where applicable, with the exception of the expected return assumption which was separately prepared by Duke Energy using additional sources of data outside of the scope of our review.

The actuarial assumptions were used for the following reports:

- Measurement of the 2017 year-end financial statement obligations
- Fiscal 2018 net periodic pension and postretirement benefit costs (in accordance with FASB ASC 715-30, and ASC 715-60 respectively)
- Actuarial Valuation Report for Employer Contributions for plan year beginning January 1, 2018 (in accordance with ERISA and the Internal Revenue Code) for the qualified pension plans
- Plan accounting for the qualified pension plans and post-retirement welfare plans (in accordance with FASB ASC 960 and ASC 965 respectively)

Discount Rate – U.S. GAAP Accounting

U.S. GAAP accounting rules (ASC 715) specify that discount rates used to measure benefit obligations for financial reporting purposes reflect rates at which benefits could be effectively settled. The plan sponsor may also look to rates of return on high quality fixed income investments currently available and expected to be available during the period to maturity of the benefits. Where fixed income maturities do not extend far enough into the future to meet expected benefit payments, the assumed discount rates are extrapolated from the existing yield curve at the measurement date.

Based on this guidance, Duke Energy Corporation has engaged Willis Towers Watson to prepare a cash flow matching analysis to support its discount rate selection, using a bond selection-settlement portfolio approach based on Willis Towers Watson's BOND:Link model.

BOND:Link develops a discount rate by selecting a portfolio of high quality corporate bonds that generates sufficient cash flow to provide for the projected benefit payments of the Retirement Plans. Based on guidance provided by the Securities and Exchange Commission for U.S. GAAP filings and generally accepted practice, the selected bond portfolio is derived from a universe of corporate bonds rated Aa quality.

Duke Energy reviewed the discount rates produced by BOND:Link for each plan group and for aggregate plan cash flows in order to select the final discount rate.

Summary of year-end discount rates

	Actual December 31, 2016 Discount Rate	Actual December 31, 2017 Discount Rate
All Plans Combined	4.10%	3.60%

Attachment 1 to this report documents the methodology for the discount rate modeling. Actual results by plan have been provided in Excel format.

While Duke Energy Corporation is responsible for the selection of the discount rate, we believe the calculations and analysis described in the report are consistent with FASB Accounting Standards Codification 715-30-35-44 and support Duke Energy Corporation’s discount rate selection process for the year-end measurement of the benefit obligations as of December 31, 2017.

Discount Rate – ASC 712 Financial Reporting

The discount rate used for ASC 712 financial reporting follows the same methodology as ASC 715 but uses a risk-free yield curve discount approach. The spot rates as of December 31, 2017 are developed by Willis Towers Watson based on information from US Treasury bonds. The methodology employed is summarized as follows:

- Treasury bond data is gathered from Bloomberg for all coupon bonds that are not inflation-linked.
- The bond universe is then categorized into groups based on adjusted maturities. Yields are determined to reflect the mid-point of quoted bid and asked prices.
- The weighted-average yield and maturity are then developed for each maturity group.
- A yield curve is generated that best fits these targets.
- The yield curve is converted to spot rates for discounting purposes. The spot rate curve is assumed to remain level for maturities beyond 30 years.

Each year’s projected benefit cash flow is discounted to December 31, 2017 at the spot rate specified for that year. The discount rate benchmark is the single rate that, if applied to all years’ cash flows, would result in the same discounted value as the spot rates applied to those same cash flows. This discount rate is only applied to participants who became disabled prior to purchase accounting (April 1, 2006 for Legacy Cinergy employees, July 1, 2012 for Legacy Progress employees). No discounting is applied to other employees. The discount rate benchmark as of December 31, 2017 will be determined using cash flows based on December 31, 2017 census data.

Discount Rate – Qualified Plan Funding

The basis chosen was selected by the plan sponsor from among choices prescribed by law, all of which are based on observed market data over certain periods of time. For the 2018 plan year, the Duke Energy qualified pension plans use segment rates based on a four-month lookback.

Discount Rate – ASC 960 Plan Accounting

The discount rate used for ASC 960 plan accounting for the qualified plans is the expected long-term rate of return. For December 31, 2017 measurement of present value of accumulated benefits for the Duke Energy qualified pension plans, a discount rate of 6.50% is used.

Discount Rate – ASC 965 Plan Accounting

The discount rate used for ASC 965 plan accounting for the qualified post-retirement welfare plans is the same rate that is determined for U.S. accounting. For December 31, 2017 measurement of present value of accumulated benefits, the discount rate is 3.60%.

Discount Rate – VEBA Funding Limits

The discount rate used for VEBA I and VEBA II funding limit is based on the expected long-term rate of return on the respective assets. For December 31, 2017 measurement of benefits, a discount rate of 5.00% is used for VEBA I (pre-tax) benefits and 4.00% for VEBA II (after tax) benefits.

Expected Long-Term Rate of Return on Plan Assets

Duke Energy selected a 6.50% expected long-term rate of return for the retirement plans and 401(h) assets for the 2018 fiscal year. This represents no change in the long-term rate of return assumption from fiscal 2017. There was no change in the return seeking and fixed income allocation policy of the legacy Duke Energy plans (via the master trust) during fiscal 2017. During 2017 the assets for the Retirement Plan of Piedmont Natural Gas and the Piedmont Natural Gas Company, Inc. Postretirement Benefits Plan were reinvested to match the allocations of the master trust.

Willis Towers Watson provided Duke Energy with returns by asset class from our Willis Towers Watson Expected Return Model as of October 1, 2017 to assist Duke Energy with the development of its assumption. The expected long-term return on plan assets was based on Duke Energy's review of the policy target allocation of the asset portfolio among various asset classes and the long-term assumed return for each asset class from the Willis Towers Watson model. Duke Energy also considered an alpha premium in the determination of the expected long-term return on plan assets.

Duke Energy selected a 5.00% pre-tax expected long-term rate of return for VEBA I assets, a 6.50% return for the Piedmont Natural Gas 401(h) assets, a 6.50% pre-tax return for the Piedmont Natural Gas Union VEBA assets, and a 4.225% post-tax return for the Piedmont Natural Gas Non-Union VEBA assets for the 2018 fiscal year. The expected long-term return on plan assets was based on a review of the policy target allocation of the asset portfolio among various asset classes and the long-term assumed return on each asset class.

Qualified Plan Administrative Expenses

This is an explicit assumption for trust-related plan expenses not reflected in the expected long-term rate of return on plan assets including administration outsourcing, trustee, consulting, audit, and PBGC premiums. The estimated expense assumption is allocated to each of the qualified pension plans and is reported with the service cost for pension expense.

Duke Energy has estimated total trust-payable administration expenses of $8.3 million for 2018 for the qualified pension plans.

Duke Energy's best estimate considers fees that are permissible to be paid by the trust and are actually expected to be paid by the trust considering (i) the level of expenses paid from the trust in recent years, (ii) whether there have been any changes in policies regarding what is paid from the trust and (iii) whether there are expected to be changes in the overall level of expenses (for example, due to an expected change in PBGC premiums).

Willis Towers Watson concurs with the expense assumption methodology in light of the approach used by Duke Energy to select an expected long-term rate of return on plan assets that considers investment management fees and not administrative expenses.

Expected Company Contributions to the Qualified Plans for 2018 and 2019

Duke Energy contributed $128 million and $13 million to the RCBP and Florida Bargained Plan, respectively, on January 2, 2018. Going forward, Duke Energy is assumed to contribute an amount equal to the plans' service cost on January 2, 2019 for all payroll companies except Piedmont Natural Gas. Piedmont Natural Gas contributions are expected to be made on December 28, 2018.

Cash Balance Interest Crediting Rate

The Duke Energy and Progress Energy cash balance plans were amended to adopt a fixed interest crediting rate of 4.00% effective January 1, 2013 for non-union employees. Additional "follow along" provisions have been adopted for certain union groups as well since January 2013. In conjunction with these plan changes, the Traditional Unit Credit valuation method is used to measure obligations for the cash balance formula benefits as required under EITF 03-4 for US GAAP accounting using the fixed 4.00% rate defined by the plans.

All other Duke Energy plan cash balance accounts not subject to the fixed interest crediting rate of 4.00% will remain subject to the 30-year Treasury yield specified by the plan, subject to a 4.00% minimum rate and a 9.00% maximum rate.

Duke Energy has selected an interest crediting rate assumption of 4.00% for the prior Duke Energy formula balances subject to the 30-year Treasury yield return. This assumption was selected after reviewing current yields and historic spreads between corporate bond rates and the 30-year Treasury rate. Because the yield on 30-year Treasury bonds have been lower than 4.00% since 2010, management has selected a long-term assumption of 4.00% while taking into consideration current conditions and recent changes in yields. Summarized below is the 30-Year Treasury bond yield for the years ending 2009-2017.

Measurement Date	30 Year Treasury Yield
December 29, 2017	2.74%
December 31, 2016	3.06%
December 31, 2015	3.01%
December 31, 2014	2.75%
December 31, 2013	3.96%
December 30, 2012	2.95%
December 31, 2011	2.89%
December 31, 2010	4.34%
December 31, 2009	4.63%

Willis Towers Watson concurs that it is reasonable to use a 4.00% interest crediting rate as a long-term assumption considering the current 30-year Treasury yield, given the 4.00% plan minimum rate and the maturity of the pension plan population exposed to this assumption.

Lump Sum and Annuity Conversion Assumptions

The valuation for the legacy Duke Energy plans and legacy Piedmont Natural Gas plan includes assumptions for converting the traditional formula benefit to a lump sum form of payment at retirement. The basis used for this conversion, as specified by the plan, is the applicable mortality and interest prescribed under IRC Section 417(e) regulations. For US GAAP accounting and ASC 960 plan accounting, Duke Energy has selected a lump sum interest rate basis based on a yield curve comprised of a universe of bonds similar to what the IRS uses for 417(e) segment rates as of the valuation snapshot date. The yield curve is based on the November Willis Towers Watson RATE:Link 40th - 90th percentile of bonds by yield plus 25 basis points. Willis Towers Watson agrees with this assumption methodology because the lump sum interest rate assumptions are designed to reflect the yield on high quality corporate debt consistent with the universe of bonds used by the IRS and the selection of the discount rate as of the snapshot date. Note that any future regulatory or law changes impacting minimum lump sums (or accounting guidance impacting discount rates) could cause this estimation approach to be revisited. For US Qualified Plan Funding, the lump sum interest rates are the same as the discount rate used which are segment rates based on a four-month lookback. Finally, the mortality table applicable for minimum present value payments under 417(e) for the 2018 plan year was used as the basis for lump sum and annuity conversions.

The valuation of the legacy Progress Energy pension benefits includes assumptions regarding how cash balance accounts are converted to annuity forms of payment upon retirement. The basis for this conversion as specified by the plan includes the 30-year Treasury rate and the applicable mortality under IRC Section 417(e) in effect on December 31, 2007 for the balance attributed to pay credits through December 31, 2013 (RCBP only) and the current applicable mortality and interest prescribed under 417(e) for pay credits earned after December 31, 2013 (RCBP only; same as above). Duke Energy has selected an assumption of 3.75% for the 30-Year Treasury conversion interest rate. Willis Towers Watson concurs that it is reasonable to use a 3.75% conversion rate as a long-term assumption considering the 30-year Treasury rate is currently at 2.74% and the rate is projected to increase under long-term normative assumptions.

Salary Increase Rate

Duke Energy has selected long-term salary increase assumptions using age-graded rates for the non-cash balance pension formulas in each plan. The salary increases in each table are based on historical pay experience, as adjusted periodically for experience and/or future expectations. These assumptions are only relevant to limited populations in the valuation (i.e. Cinergy Union Enhanced Choice, Cinergy Union Traditional and Florida Bargained Traditional participants).

The salary increase rates used for the nonqualified pension plans are the same as the respective underlying qualified pension plans.

The assumed salary increase rates for the average age participant in the qualified pension plans are as follows:

- Cinergy Enhanced Choice and Traditional average: 3.5%
- Florida Bargained Traditional average: 4.0%

Willis Towers Watson concurs that these salary increase rates are reasonable for the measurement of year-end obligations of these limited populations. This assumption should be monitored from year to year to determine if the current assumption produces significant gains or losses, which could warrant a change to the assumption in the future.

Inflation Rate

Duke Energy has selected an inflation rate assumption of 2.25%. This assumption is used to project the IRC Section 415 benefit limits as well as IRC Section 401(a)(17) compensation limits for qualified pension plans. It also is an underlying building block component when examining range results for other economic assumptions. The assumption was 2.25% for fiscal 2017.

The Willis Towers Watson Expected Return Model U.S. Capital Market Assumptions as of October 1, 2017 assumes 2.30% in the short term, rising to a long-term normative assumption of 2.50% per year. The assumption also considers the current break even inflation rate found in TIPS. Willis Towers Watson concurs that the inflation rate assumption at 2.25% is reasonable.

Social Security Taxable Wage Base (SSTWB)

Duke Energy has selected a SSTWB increase rate of 3.25%. Consistent with last year's assumption and methodology, Duke Energy's approach to selecting this assumption is to assume the SSTWB will increase at the same rate as CPI-U plus 100 basis points for wage inflation.

The SSTWB is indexed with national wage increases. It is generally accepted that broad-based wages will increase at a higher rate than inflation, due to increases in productivity. Willis Towers Watson concurs that it is reasonable to increase the inflation assumption by 100 basis points for purposes of determining the assumed increase rate in the SSTWB.

Health Care Cost Trend Rates (US GAAP accounting and ASC 965 only)

Willis Towers Watson annually surveys employers for prospective employer health care trends. In addition, we review the information provided by other national health care trend surveys and input from UnitedHealthcare (UHC) actuaries' expectations of future trends. Based on this information, we expect employer health care rate increases for retiree plans from 2017 to 2018 will be approximately 7.00%. We consider these assumptions appropriate, as a starting point, for a blend of both medical and prescription drug costs and thus, have one trend assumption for both medical and prescription drug costs covering both pre and post-65 retirees.

The health care cost trend rate assumption is graded down 0.50% every year to 5.50% in 2021, then 0.25% every year to an ultimate trend rate of 4.75% in 2024, in order to reflect the widely held expectation that health care trends will slowly mitigate over time and in recognition that the proportion of the GNP represented by health care must stabilize at some time. Thus, our assumption matches that of our expectation retiree plans from 2017 to 2018. Consequently, after reviewing the initial trend rates, ultimate trend rates, and years from initial to ultimate trend, we concur that this assumption is reasonable.

It should be noted that, as a result of the recent changes in plan design effective in 2014 for non-union employees and 2016 and 2017 for union employees, the impact this assumption has on company obligations has been minimized. Additionally, it has no impact on company obligations for the Piedmont Post Retirement Plan.

Per Capita Claims Costs

To begin the process for the non-Medicare exchange plans, we used March 2015 through February 2017 paid claims data gathered from Truven Health Analytics database for all Legacy groups (Duke, Cinergy and Progress). Only pre-65 claims are analyzed.

Medical and prescription drug claims and enrollment for all three legacy plans were separated and used to develop projected 2018 percentage rate increases applicable to the 2017 per-member per-month (PMPM) rates for those plans. We trended forward the experience to 2018 and then adjusted for the small change to the prescription drug value as a result of the slightly improved prescription drug deal terms. To account for the cost of administration, we added the contractually agreed upon 2018 administration fees for UHC and Caremark to the PMPMs.

As a result of our analysis, pre-65 PMPMs for 2018 are expected to increase as follows:

- Legacy Duke: 9.9%
- Legacy Cinergy: 11.6%
- Legacy Progress: 0.2%
- Combined increase: 5.9%

Since no credible claims experience is yet available for retirees after 1/1/2015 due to the small size of the population, they will also receive the combined rate increase (i.e., 5.9% rate increase for 2018).

Increase in Retiree Contribution Rates

Class D1 and N1 retirees receive free coverage for retiree-only coverage. Class D1 dependents and surviving spouses have contributions that increase with the cost of plan coverage. Class D2 through D5 and N2 through N4 retirees receive a defined dollar subsidy (DDB). Retirees with a DDB bear the full effect of plan cost increases with higher contributions. Class 10 retirees pay $14 per month for pre-65 coverage for their dependent spouses with no future increases. Class 15 through Class 60 non-HRA participants pay a percentage of their plan costs, based on a percentage of cost that each retiree pays that varies by service at retirement. Thus, the contributions for these groups increase as the percentage of total cost increases. HRA retirees (including Class D9) are valued assuming 100% utilization for reimbursement of premium out-of-pocket costs paid from the HRA. Once the HRA is depleted, the retiree can continue to participate in the plan at full cost. Class D6 retirees are not eligible for an employer subsidy. Class D7 and D8 retirees receive a fixed monthly subsidy HRA credit. These retirees will pay the cost of their postretirement benefits in excess of the HRA subsidy amount. For union and non-union pre-65 retirees in Classes NBU40, NBU50/55, and BU30/35 are subject to a cap and therefore bear the full impact of annual plan cost increases. The subsidy for post-65 retirees is limited to premium increases in the UHC exchange each year for NBU10/20 and BU10/20 and fixed at 3% per year for NBU30/35 retirees.

Limits on Employer Subsidy

Employer subsidies are capped for classes D2 through D6 and N2 through N4 for legacy Duke retirees, class 55 / HRA benefits for legacy Cinergy retirees, classes NBU30 through NBU60 and BU30 through BU40 for legacy Progress retirees, and classes D7 and D8 for all future retirees which limit employer subsidies to defined dollar annual amounts or account balances and are described in the “Increase in Retiree Contribution Rates” section.

RDS Estimate for 2018

As Duke Energy does not sponsor a post-65 plan effective 2015, no RDS subsidy assumption is needed.

Mortality Assumption (Current Rates and Projection Basis) – U.S. Accounting, ASC 960 Plan Accounting, ASC 965 Plan Accounting, and VEBA I and II Funding Limits

In selecting a mortality assumption for the year-end 2017 reporting of plan obligations, Duke Energy considered base mortality rates as of the valuation year and expectations regarding future mortality improvements in those base mortality rates. Duke Energy also considered the MP-2017 projection scale recently published by the Society of Actuaries (SOA) on October 20, 2017 and other recent studies of mortality improvement.

In December 2014, Duke Energy conducted a mortality experience study of its own population in light of the base mortality table rates presented in RP-2014. The plan mortality experience over the period 2010-2013 was compared to the RP-2014 table with projection of the table to the mid-point of the experience period using Scale MP-2014 and mortality was determined to be higher than indicated by the table. Based on the results of that experience study, Duke Energy has decided to use the following base mortality table rates, with adjustments indicated, by plan. There was not enough credibility to perform an experience study for the Piedmont Natural Gas retirement plans, so no adjustment factors have been made to the base tables. Based on the recent MP-2017 projection scale release by the SOA, the Piedmont base mortality tables were updated to RP-2017.

Plan	Base Mortality Table
RCBP and CGEU	RP-2014 no collar rates, increased by 13%
Former PEPP in RCBP and Florida Bargained	RP-2014 no collar rates, increased by 9%
PNG Qualified	RP-2017 no collar rates, without adjustment
ECBP	RP-2014 white collar rates, increased by 13% for legacy Duke/Cinergy participants and RP-2014 white collar rates, increased by 9% for legacy Progress participants
SSERP (inactives)	RP-2014 white collar rates, increased by 9%
Florida SERP and Florida NDP	RP-2014 white collar rates, without adjustment

Plan	Base Mortality Table
Piedmont Natural Gas Company Nonqualified Retirement Plans	RP-2017 white collar rates, without adjustment
Duke Energy Retiree Medical and Life Insurance Benefits for certain legacy Duke and Cinergy employees	RPH-2014 (headcount weighted tables) no collar rates, increased by 15%
Duke Energy Retiree Medical and Life Insurance Benefits for certain legacy Progress Energy employees	RPH-2014 (headcount weighted tables) no collar rates, increased by 10%
Legacy Duke Energy Postemployment Welfare Benefit Plans	RPH-2014 (headcount weighted tables) no collar rates, increased by 15%
Legacy Progress Energy Non-Union LTD Health and Life Benefits and Florida Power Union LTD Income Benefits	RPH-2014 (headcount weighted tables) no collar rates, increased by 10%
Piedmont Natural Gas Company, Inc. Postretirement Benefits Plan	RPH-2017 (headcount weighted tables) no collar rates, without adjustment

With respect to mortality improvement scale, Duke Energy has selected the MP-2017 projection scale, as published by the Society of Actuaries in October 2017. Duke Energy believes this scale most accurately reflects short-term mortality improvements observed and therefore represents a reasonable basis for long-term expectations. This assumption is changed from the prior year assumption of Scale BB-2D, which was employed in the valuations from fiscal 2015 to fiscal 2017. Duke Energy will evaluate future studies and scales published by the Society of Actuaries to determine if a change from MP-2017 is warranted in subsequent measurement years.

Disabled mortality is the same as healthy mortality for all plans, except for the PNG Qualified Plan, where disabled mortality is based on the 1985 Pension Disabled Mortality Table.

Willis Towers Watson concurs these assumptions are reasonable and represent best estimates for the measurement of year-end 2017 obligations for these plans considering the composition of the covered groups, plan experience, recent studies of actual to assumed mortality improvement as well as geography.

Mortality Assumption – Qualified Plan Funding

Healthy and Disabled Mortality - Assumptions used for funding purposes are as prescribed by IRC §430(h).

Retirement Rates

In 2014, Duke Energy conducted an experience study of retirement patterns of its population from 2011 through 2013. Based on the results of this study, Duke Energy elected to update the retirement tables for the non-union groups with no changes for the union participant groups. The tables were updated using a 50% weighting on this recent experience.

In 2015, Piedmont Natural Gas conducted an experience study using data from 2010-2015. The retirement tables were developed using the experience study results as well as the expectation of future retirement patterns.

Willis Towers Watson concurs that the current assumptions are reasonable expectations of long term retirement patterns based on past experience and input from the plan sponsor concerning its future expectations. This assumption will be monitored periodically to determine if the current assumption produces significant gains or losses, which could warrant a change to the assumption in the future.

Withdrawal Rates

The assumed withdrawal rates for the legacy Duke Energy plans are based on an experience study conducted in 2009 reflecting experience for years 2006, 2007, and 2008.

In 2015, Piedmont Natural Gas conducted an experience study using data from 2010-2015. Based on these results and expected withdrawal patterns, termination rates were developed.

Willis Towers Watson concurs that the current assumptions are reasonable expectations of long term withdrawal patterns based on past experience and input from the plan sponsor concerning its future expectations. This assumption will be monitored periodically to determine if the current assumption produces significant gains or losses, which could warrant a change to the assumption in the future.

Disability Termination (Recovery) Rates

Duke Energy revised the disability termination (recovery) rates for the legacy Duke Energy and Progress Energy plans during 2015 to use the 1987 Group Long-Term Disability Valuation Table (GLTD). This represents one of the most recent standard industry tables and is still utilized by a wide variety of employers. Willis Towers Watson concurs that this assumption is reasonable. This assumption will be monitored periodically to determine if it produces significant gains or losses, which could warrant a change to the assumption in the future.

Disability Rates

The assumed disability rates for the legacy Duke Energy and Progress Energy plans were last reviewed in 2010 based on the actual incidence of disability during 2007, 2008 and 2009. The legacy Piedmont Natural Gas pension plans use a disability incidence table based on the Conference of Consulting Actuaries 1985 Pension Disability Study Class 1 since there is not enough historical information for an experience study. Willis Towers Watson concurs that the current assumptions are reasonable expectations of long term patterns based on past experience. This assumption will be monitored periodically to determine if the current assumption produces significant gains or losses, which could warrant a change to the assumption in the future.

Timing and Optional Forms of Payment

In 2014, based on a review of experience, Duke Energy updated its assumption regarding the assumed timing of lump sum payments from the RCBP. Previously, lump sums were assumed to be paid immediately upon an active employee's termination or retirement. Experience suggested that many participants are not taking their lump sum immediately, and instead deferring it to a later age. Therefore, the revised actuarial assumption in the RCBP valuation assumes 50% of lump sums for new terminations are paid immediately and 50% of lump sums for new terminations are deferred until age 65.

In 2015, Piedmont Natural Gas conducted an experience study using experience from 2010-2015. Based on this study, the form and timing of payment were developed. It is assumed that 85% of the active population elects a lump sum at termination or retirement while 15% elects a single life annuity. For current deferred vested participants, 70% are assumed to elect a lump sum and 30% elect a 50% Joint and Survivor annuity. For married participants with a Progress cash balance account, the assumed form is a 50% Joint and Survivor annuity since there is no reduction from the single life annuity.

All other assumptions regarding optional forms of payment are to remain unchanged from the previous year's valuation, based on Duke Energy's review of historical experience, the Piedmont Natural Gas experience study and expectations of future behavior.

Willis Towers Watson concurs that the current assumptions are reasonable expectations of long term patterns based on past experience. This assumption will be monitored periodically to determine if the current assumption produces significant gains or losses, which could warrant a change to the assumption in the future.

Medical Plan Participation

For the pre-65 medical plans, Duke Energy uses an assumed medical participation rate of 100% for future retirees beginning in 2015, as a result of the new HRA plan design. The participation assumption for existing retirees in the Duke-sponsored pre-65 traditional medical plan offerings, reflecting persistency, is 100% of current enrolled pre-65 retirees in 2017 who are eligible to receive a subsidy, grading down to 80% participation over 4 years to account for a steady decline in participation among those plans. The participation assumption remains at 100% for current and future post-65 retirees who are eligible to receive a subsidy to purchase individual Medicare plan coverage through United HealthCare's Connector exchange.

For the subset of Duke Energy post-65 retirees who are eligible for a retirement reimbursement account for dental and vision coverage, the participation assumption is 50%, unchanged from the prior year. This assumption is based on actual usage of this benefit over the past several years.

For the Piedmont Natural Gas Postretirement Benefits Plan, an assumed medical participation rate of 95% is used for future retirees, unchanged from prior year. This assumption was selected based on expected enrollment and experience of similar plans. This assumption increases to 100% after reflecting the change in plan design to the Duke HRA platform.

Willis Towers Watson concurs that these assumptions are reasonable expectations of long term patterns based on past experience. We will continue to review Duke Energy's plan enrollment experience and the impact Health Care Reform's Public Exchanges on the retiree marketplace for pre-65 plan participation in the new Subsidy HRA program.

Effects of Healthcare Reform

Willis Towers Watson has reviewed the prior determination of potential impact of the excise tax on "Cadillac Plans" and agrees with the estimated impact on the various retiree medical arrangements. Based on discussions with Duke Energy, the company deems the impact of the tax on plan obligations immaterial and will not measure its effects. Further, the company intends to make changes to plans, as necessary, to avoid the tax should it ever be triggered in the future.

Marriage Assumption

Duke Energy has elected to assume that 85% (80% for Progress Energy, 40% for Progress Energy Union females, 80% for Piedmont Natural Gas males and 60% for Piedmont Natural Gas females) of participants are married and that husbands are three years older than their spouses (two years for Progress Energy). Willis Towers Watson concurs that the current assumptions are reasonable expectations of long term patterns based on past experience.

Overtime Assumption

In 2016, Duke Energy conducted an experience study of this assumption for the legacy Duke Energy and Progress Energy plans using experience from 2011-2015. Based on results of this study and expectations of future overtime experience, Duke Energy has elected to increase this assumption to 12%, 24%, or 28% of base pay for those with low, medium, and high base pay, where low base pay is defined as below $50,000 and high base pay is defined as over $67,500. This assumption was selected based on input from Duke Energy.

Willis Towers Watson concurs that the current assumptions are reasonable expectations of long term patterns based on Duke Energy's input. We will monitor overtime experience going forward to determine if future revisions might be appropriate.

Other Significant Events and Experience

In addition to the assumptions used to calculate year-end benefit obligations, certain events during the year will also impact year-end benefit obligations and reporting. The following events are to be reflected in the measurement of year-end benefit obligations.

- Effective January 1, 2018, final average pay benefits for legacy Piedmont pension plan participants will be frozen and these participants will earn future benefits under the RCBP cash balance formula
- Effective January 1, 2018, eligibility for retiree medical benefits for all employees in the Duke and Progress medical plans will change from 55 with 10 years of service, to age 55 with 10 years of service with service counted beginning at age 45. This change triggered curtailment accounting in the plan, and the curtailment credit was recognized in fiscal 2017 (Q4).
- Effective January 1, 2018 (January 1, 2020 for employees hired prior to January 1, 2008), legacy Piedmont employees who are currently eligible for retiree medical coverage will move to the Duke enterprise platform
- Effective January 1, 2018, legacy Piedmont employees who have not yet retired will no longer be eligible for retiree life insurance
- Pension plan reorganization (spinoffs / mergers) to be reflected for fiscal 2018 Net Periodic Benefit Cost
- Retiree medical merger to be reflected for fiscal 2018 Net Periodic Benefit Cost
- Lump sum payments made in 2017 triggered settlement accounting for the Retirement Plan of Piedmont Natural Gas Company, Inc. The settlement charge was recognized in fiscal 2017 (Q4).
- Fewer than expected terminations observed during 2017 in the legacy Duke Energy, Cinergy, and Progress Energy populations (excluding Florida Bargained group) will be reflected in the rollforward of the pension and retiree welfare plans' obligations from January 1, 2017 to the December 31, 2017 measurement date.

Transfer Experience

Funded status and unrecognized amount adjustments will be made for the payroll company transfers from normal course of business transfers during 2017 that are deemed to be material by the company. Benefit obligation adjustments will be made for all payroll company transfers during 2017, as provided by Duke Energy.

Health Care Premium Experience and Per Capita Claims Costs

For the groups whose company obligations are dependent on per capita cost experience, claims for their plans increased slightly less than expected.

Overview

Willis Towers Watson's BOND:Link assists plan sponsors in the selection of discount rates that reflect the characteristics of their employee benefit plans. Discount rates are derived by identifying a theoretical settlement portfolio of high quality corporate bonds sufficient to provide for a plan's projected benefit payments.

The expected cash flow from the selected bond portfolio is not expected to align perfectly with the timing of the projected benefit payments. Thus, BOND:Link provides for assumptions to be made with respect to the return associated with surplus cash flows expected during future periods. These assumptions are based on forward rates developed from standard yield curves developed by Willis Towers Watson. The model is designed so that the cash flow from the selected bonds, together with the anticipated return on accumulated surplus amounts, is exactly sufficient to provide for the plan's cash flow requirements.

A single discount rate is then determined that results in a discounted value of the plan's benefit payments that equates to the market value of the selected bonds – this informs the final discount rate selected by Duke Energy.

The discount rates developed using the BOND:Link model are as follows using the projected benefit payments from valuations conducted using January 1, 2017 census data and assumptions and plan provisions as of a December 31, 2017 measurement date:

- 3.53% for Duke Energy Retirement Cash Balance Plan (RCBP)
- 3.62% for Cinergy Corp. Union Employees' Retirement Income Plan (CGEU)
- 3.74% for Retirement Plan for Bargaining Unit Employees of Florida Progress Corporation (Florida Bargained)
- 3.58% for Retirement Plan of Piedmont Natural Gas Company, Inc. (PNG Qualified Plan)
- 3.61% for Duke Energy Corporation Executive Cash Balance Plan (ECBP)
- 3.64% for Florida Progress Corporation Nonqualified Retirement Plans (Florida SERP and Florida NDP)
- 3.49% for Progress Energy Supplemental Senior Executive Retirement Plan (SSERP inactives)
- 3.37% for Piedmont Natural Gas Company Nonqualified Retirement Plans (PNG Nonqualified)
- 3.27% for Duke Energy Retiree Health and Welfare Benefits (Medical Insurance) for Future Retirees and Retirees in Legacy Duke Energy and Cinergy Locations (Duke Medical)
- 3.65% for Duke Energy Retiree Health and Welfare Benefits (Life Insurance) for Future Retirees and Retirees in Legacy Duke Energy Location (Duke Life)
- 3.56% for Legacy Cinergy Retiree Life Benefits (Cinergy Life)
- 3.48% for Progress Energy and Florida Progress Non-Union and Union Medical Benefits (Progress Medical)

- 3.65% for Progress Energy and Florida Progress Non-Union Life Benefits (Progress Nonunion Life)
- 3.70% for Florida Progress Union Life Benefits (Progress Union Life)
- 3.56% for Piedmont Natural Gas Company, Inc. Post Retirement Benefits Plan (PNG OPEB)

Modeling Methodology

Bond Universe

Bonds Included

BOND:Link selects a settlement portfolio from a universe of high quality corporate bonds across the full maturity spectrum. The included bonds are Aa-rated corporate issues denominated in U.S. dollars.

Bonds with the following features are excluded:

- callable (unless the call includes a make whole provision)
- puttable
- convertible
- sinkable
- extendable
- perpetual
- refundable
- structured notes
- trust preferred or other hybrids
- special purpose
- variable coupon
- inflation-linked.

Bonds identified as private placement or Eurodollar are included only if robust pricing information is available, as evidenced by Bloomberg's publication of a Bloomberg Generic (BGN) composite price.

In addition, we have excluded all collateralized bonds from the universe and bonds with less than $50 million for the amount outstanding.

Grades Considered

A bond is considered to be AA graded if it receives an AA (or equivalent) rating from either or both of the two primary rating agencies - Standard and Poor's and Moody's.

Grades are considered only if provided without significant qualification; we thus exclude ratings designated as estimated, provisional or preliminary.

Pricing

The market for fixed income securities differs substantially from that for stocks, in that trading for any particular fixed income issue is likely to take place only sporadically throughout the trading day. In fact, some issues may not be exchanged at all on a given day. For this reason, quoted bond prices and yields represent estimates based on available market data, and prices quoted at the close of the trading day generally include adjustments to reflect capital market conditions at that particular point in time.

In developing the bond universe, we identify issues and their associated yields based on data from Bloomberg. Bloomberg provides bond prices and yields from a number of external sources as well as their own proprietary pricing models. In developing yields we primarily rely on the yields developed from Bloomberg Generic (BGN) prices. These represent a composite of price quotations from a number of sources. However, there may be insufficient information available for Bloomberg to develop a composite price for a given bond issue on a given trading day. When the primary pricing source is unavailable, we refer to a secondary pricing source.

We have analyzed available pricing data to ensure broad price coverage as well as accurate yield information, e.g., by testing an array of secondary pricing sources to assess their ability to match data from our primary pricing source. Based on this criterion, we have identified Bloomberg Valuation (BVAL) as the best available secondary pricing source. Thus, when a BGN yield is not available for a given issue, we use yield information from BVAL.

Note that BVAL employs a matrix pricing methodology, which facilitates the publication of pricing results even under light trading conditions. Matrix pricing develops an estimate for a given bond based on reference to a broad array of similar bonds, e.g., based on issuer, industry, maturity, features, and grade/sub-grade.

For each pricing source, we use the “mid-yield” developed from the mid-point of quoted bid and asked prices.

Minimum Dollar Amounts

A minimum amount outstanding of $500 million is applied for bonds with less than 10 years to maturity and $50 million for bonds with 10 or more years to maturity.

Adjustments to Bonds’ Presumed Payment Timing

In order to align the bonds’ cash flows with those of an employee benefit plan which makes monthly benefit payments (thus, on average in the middle of the year), we assume that all bonds make coupon and principal payments in the middle of the forthcoming year.

Though we may allow bonds up to about 40 years into the universe, there are normally few if any issues with maturities beyond 30 years. For simplicity, any bonds with maturities beyond 30 years that do appear are treated as though they are 30-year bonds (or more precisely, we presume a final payment at 29.5 years).

To the extent that adjustments are implied with regard to the timing of coupon or principal payments, the model adjusts the presumed market value of each bond consistent with its quoted market yield.

Matching the Plan’s Projected Benefit Payments

Removing Outliers

BOND:Link allows plan sponsors to exclude bonds in the universe with high yields relative to the other bonds in the universe. Defining bonds as outliers causes the eventual settlement portfolio and resulting discount rate to be more conservative, by avoiding the theoretical “purchase” of issues whose pricing or credit rating might be viewed as less reliable.

After removal of all collateralized bonds from the universe, the highest yielding 5% of remaining bonds within each maturity grouping have been excluded as outliers.

Selecting Bonds

After outliers are excluded, each bond's relative attractiveness is determined. The bonds are ranked based on each bond's "accumulated yield premium", as measured in comparison to an underlying/baseline yield curve. More highly ranked bonds are considered for purchase first. Only bonds with maturity dates on or before the date of the latest unmatched benefit payment are eligible for selection in order to avoid terminal surplus.

Limits on Bond Purchases

No one bond is used to settle more than 10% of the value of benefit payments.

Addressing Benefit Payments Beyond 30 Years

There are generally very few bonds that mature beyond 30 years, but defined benefit pension plans often are expected to make benefit payments more than 30 years into the future. This is addressed by BOND:Link discounting the benefit payments beyond 30 years back to year 30 (more precisely, 30+ year benefit amounts are consolidated to one presumed payment at year 29.5) and then selecting a bond portfolio that can settle that artificially large year 30 benefit payment.

For discounting the post-year 30 benefit payments to year 30, Willis Towers Watson used a yield curve developed based on the initial underlying universe of Aa-rated corporate issues with bond yields within the 10th-90th percentiles.

Reinvesting Portfolio Proceeds

If a bond selected for purchase matures on or before the cash is needed for benefit payments, the resulting excess funds are presumed to be reinvested. These accumulated funds are then used as needed to meet successive year benefit payments. The basis for reinvestment earnings is a yield curve developed based on the initial underlying universe of Aa-rated corporate issues with bond yields within the 10th-90th percentiles.

Determining the Discount Rate

BOND:Link matches the present value of the plan's projected benefit payments to the market value of the theoretical settlement bond portfolio. A single equivalent discount rate is determined to align the present value of the required cash flow with the value of the bond portfolio. The resulting discount rate is reflective of both the current interest rate environment and the plan's distinct liability characteristics.

Accompanying this report is an Excel file containing a summary of the actual results for each plan including:

- Satisfaction of benefit payments with cash flows from the selected bond portfolio along with presumed reinvestment earnings, and
- The bond portfolio selected to settle each plan's projected benefit payments.
